

Celebrating CTG's 60th Anniversary

$60 for the complete 2009–2010 Season

Wait Until Dark

by Frederick Knott

October 23–November 1, 2009

Three sinister characters trace the location of a "mysterious" doll to the Greenwich Village apartment of Sam Hendrix, and his blind wife, Suzy. A huge Broadway hit and a classic movie favorite, this masterly constructed thriller will have you on the edge of your seats with an ending that will electrify. A perfect play for Halloween time!

THE WIZARD OF OZ – 15th anniversary

by L. Frank Baum

November 13–22, 2009

The Triad kicks off the holiday season each year with CTG's timeless tale of Dorothy and her adventures "over the rainbow." The cast changes and special effects are enhanced, but the love affair between our audience members—young and old alike—and this enchanting production never fades! See you in November, for truly... "there's no place like home."

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever

by Barbara Robinson

December 11–20, 2009

The Herdmans show up at the church Christmas Pageant tryouts and everyone is horrified. Why? Because they are horrible children! They steal, burn down buildings, and terrorize the neighborhood. Students & families will love the story of how the Herdmans and their community learn to work together, while learning the true meaning of Christmas.

The Sunshine Boys

by Neil Simon

February 19–March 7, 2010

Al Lewis and Willy Clark played vaudeville as a team for 45 years, but a personal feud has kept them apart for 11 years. An opportunity to revive their act on a CBS "History of Comedy" special sparks a reunion that has you rolling in the aisles! It is Neil Simon at his best! Jack Klugman, Tony Randall, George Burns and Walter Matthau are just some of the great comedic actors on stage and film who have loved being part of this hilarious comedy. Get ready to laugh your head off!!!

CTG's 60 YEARS OF BROADWAY

April 23–May 9, 2010
